Not illustrated. 1906 Excerpt: .seminary met and resolved that if the local voters would organize a union free school district and if the district would bind itself to honor certain scholarship certificates, the trustees of the seminary would transfer to the school district the seminary building and grounds, collections etc. and the sum of seven thousand, six hundred dollars ($7600) in securities belonging to the endowment fund. When this resolution was proposed, it was moved to amend by striking out the amount of the endowment named and by inserting the whole of the endowment. The amendment was lost and the resolution was then iopted. On the 31st of July 1903, a meeting of the voters of the school district was held, at which it was determined to organize a union free school district, and steps were taken which resulted in such organization. At the annual meeting of the voters of the school district, August 4, 1903, a vote was passed accepting and agreeing to the various propositions of the trustees of the seminary, provided that said seminary turn over all its property, both real and personal, of whatsoever name or nature. Thereupon the trustees of the seminary held a meeting August 14, 1903, at which the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: Whereas, Each and every member of this board of trustees concedes the good faith and intent of the others and that we are all jointly interested in the cause of education, good neighborhood and society, and anxious to...
