Archie can finally heal from the near-fatal physical and emotional wounds she s inflicted on him and start moving on with his life. Or can he? His latest case, involving a man who was mutilated and murdered in a public park in broad daylight, bears the stamp of an expert killer and before long, Archie gets a message from Gretchen, who makes him an offer he can t refuse. Gretchen claims to have inside knowledge about the grisly Mount Tabor Park murder and Archie can t risk losing his only lead in the case. At least, that s what he tells himself after he agrees to visit Gretchen But the ties between Archie and Gretchen have always been stronger, deeper, and more complex than he s willing to admit, even to himself. What game is Gretchen playing this time? And even more frightening, what long-hidden secrets from her past have been dredged up that someone would kill to protect?.
