Eighteen sanitary notices served. During this month a law to fix a standard for cream, to provide penalty for violation thereof, a law providing for the licensing of ice cream plants and defining and regulating the sale of ice cream, became effective. Also the law to amend Section 12719 and 12720 of the General Code, and to add supplementary Sections 12720-1, relative to the sale of pure milk, skimmed milk and standardized milk, also the law to fix the standard for loaves of bread will become effective September 6th, which made it necessary for the department to draft a code of rules and regulations for the enforcement of these laws, which has been done and approved by the Department of Agriculture. The laws and rules are now in printed leaflet form and may be had by anyone interested. The new laws with proper enforcement will prove a boon to the consumers of the most nutritious and necessary foods used and should insure a purer and cleaner product, and the consumer will know he is getting what he pays for. HORTICULTURE AT THE 1921 OHIO STATE FAIR The 1921 Ohio State Fair has come and gone. In spite of the extremely unfavorable weather conditions with which the farmer and particularly the fruit grower has had to contend this year the exhibits of the products of the soil were if anything more plentiful than last year. Nowhere was this more...
