Education, in the past, has been improperly understood by those who have acted in that important capacity of Parent and Teacher. Man is to a great extent a creature of circumstances, as his character is formed by his surroundings. Everything that makes an impression upon his mind, either tends to educate him in the Paths of Truth, or to direct his mind in the slothful channels of Vice and Misery. Everything that comes in contact with our vision, is educational in its effects; hence, it has been truly said, that he that runs may read, and gather knowledge, but not always wisdom. The first lessons which we receive, are while the soul-germ of our being is slumbering in the embryo of Fetal development. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
