Excerpt: . . . and loves to live at large, seeking all liberty to the flesh, shall die, Prov. xix. 16. And it is made good by Paul, If we live after the flesh, we shall die. Rom. viii. 13. We learn likewise that men of an ill governed life have no true judgment. No wicked man can be a wise man. And that without Christs Spirit the soul is in confusion, without beauty and form, as all things were in the chaos before the creation. The whole soul is out of joint till it be set in again, by him whose office is to restore all things. The baser part of the soul, which should be subject, rules all, and keeps under that little truth that is in the understanding, holding it captive to base affections; and Satan by corruption gets all the holds of the soul, till...
