Brand New Book  Print on Demand .OUT of a window of the Weissen Ross, at Coblenz, looking upon the rapid Rhine, over whose circling eddies a rich sunset shed a golden tint, two young Englishmen lounged and smoked their cigars; rarely speaking, and, to all seeming, wearing that air of boredom which, strangely enough, would appear peculiar to a very enjoyable time of life. They were acquaintances of only a few days. They agreed they would travel together, all the more readily that neither cared very much in what direction. As for me, said Calvert, it doesn t much signify where I pass the interval; but, in October, I must return to India and join my regiment.
