Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The 2014 BBC Apprentice winner Mark Wright (an Australian) had this to say about London: London particularly is a land of opportunity for young people to start businesses. You can start a business here from your kitchen bench and turn over a million quid - what other place in the world can you do that? A survey of more than 200,000 people from 189 countries carried out by management consultancy firm The Boston Consulting Group (with the UK's and The Network, a global alliance of more than 50 recruitment websites) found London to be the most desirable place to work in the world. One in six people said they wanted to work in London, while Britain as a whole came out as the world's second favourite place to work, just behind the US. London welcomes talented people from around the world with open arms. There are many great opportunities available in the UK (Britain) for the skilled foreigner. Don't be left behind. This book is structured in five parts. Each part is available as a...
