City Lights Books, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Thank you, Howard Zinn. Thank you for telling us what none of our leaders are willing to: The truth. And you tell it with such brilliance, such humanity. It is a personal honor to be able to say I am a better citizen because of you. --Michael Moore, director of the film Fahrenheit 9/11, and author of the New York Times bestseller, Stupid White Men .and Other Sorry Excuses for the State of the Nation! Find here the voice of the well-educated and honorable and capable and human United States of America, which might have existed if only absolute power had not corrupted its third-rate leaders so absolutely. -- Kurt Vonnegut, author of A Man Without a Country A Power Governments Cannot Suppress, is a major new collection of essays on American history, class, immigration, justice, and ordinary citizens who have made a difference. Zinn addresses America s current political/ethical crisis using lessons learned from our nation s history. Zinn brings a profoundly human, yet uniquely American perspective to each subject he writes about, whether it s the abolition of war, terrorism, the Founding Fathers, the Holocaust, defending the rights of immigrants, or personal liberties. Written in an accessible, personal tone, Zinn approaches the telling of U.S. history from an active, engaged point of view. America s future is linked to how we understand our past, writes Zinn; For this reason, writing about history, for me, is never a neutral act. Zinn frames the book with an opening essay titled If History is to be Creative, a reflection on the role and responsibility of the historian. To think that history-writing must aim simply to recapitulate the failures that dominate the...
