Excerpt: . . . nt to thank the National Chamber Foundation and the Travel Business Roundtable for co-hosting this important summit on securing the future of travel and tourism. I am pleased to have the opportunity to share with all of you what the State Department is doing to advance President Bushs policy, a simple policy, of Secure Borders, Open Doors. Secure borders. We ought to know whos coming into our country, what theyre coming in here for, where theyre going, how long theyre going to be here for and when they leave. Not unreasonable. We also have to make sure that, in having those secure borders, we also convey an attitude of openness. Open Doors. We want you to come. We want you come share the American experience. Because to be true to ourselves as a democratic nation and to protect our national security, we must continue to be a welcoming country even as we take effective means to keep our enemies out. We must do both...
