Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The British and Dutch in South Africa: A Paper Read Before the Trinity Club of Trinity Church, and the Dorchester Historical Society, and the Victorian Club of Boston It was my good fortune to visit Holland and England during the months of September and October, at the time of the outbreak of hostilities in South Africa. As this was the principal topic under discussion at that time, I had an excellent opportunity of hearing both sides of the question. On my return to Boston I was requested by several societies to give them my views or opinions concerning the rights of the questions involved in the terrible drama now being enacted in South Africa. I was surprised to learn how little was known concerning the real merits of the case. The sympathy of many swayed towards the Boer side, on account of an ancient prejudice resulting from the Revolutionary war, they taking it for granted that England intended to oppress the Boer who was fighting for the freedom of his country. Another class, which is...
